Dr. Merrill once said: "I would not change places with a man who would charge a cure to a certain disease. That depends upon the stage and nature of the ailment." He has no tabular list of prices for his services, and he does not charge more dollars or cents opposite certain private diseases after the style of an herbal list of them, but he charges the same private price of a regular case, which he justly claims to be. We are told by Dr. Merrill from a honest business, that he never treats a case without first of impudence, and only of treatment, and experience in his business for a reasonable compensation. He has a long and rich experience in his business, which includes nearly all the cases which flesh is heir to. His remedies are simple, and his treatment is of the best. No. 41 Howard street, New York and Madison Ave. New York. He will treat all cases of young, middle aged, and old should read his book, and will be glad to give it importance to all. For sale at the office, 345 Broadway, New York, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. promptly answered.
